Membership Benefits

Reduced fees to attend events
The annual membership fee is more than covered by these savings.

Leadership Opportunities

All events include non CE courses designed for personal and professional development. The organization has five officers that lead the organization and over 20 committee chair positions that serve as leaders of the organization.

Continuing Education Hours

FIWT events include a minimum of six hours of CE credits approved by Texas Department of Insurance.

Connections

Nothing takes the place of a face to face connection. Companies and agency staff have numerous opportunities to sit and visit at our events. Our members value the relationships with each other throughout the state of Texas. When we get together, it is like visiting with old friends and colleagues.

Scholarships Available

Each year through our partnerships with IIAT, Texas CIC and National Alliance for Insurance Education and Research, we are able to offer scholarships exclusive to FIWT members.

Community Service

Serve as an advocate of the community by participating in the community service projects each year to bring awareness and support important causes. Community Service projects are held at both the state and local levels.

Exclusive Designation

CIPT Designation

Membership Levels

Local Member

There are 14 local associations throughout the state. Through involvement at the local level you can participate in events and networking in a city near you. This level is meant for individual involvement.

Members At Large

Those individuals unable to attend monthly meetings can still enjoy the benefits of joining at the state-level.

Industry Member

Companies, Managing General Agencies, Finance Companies and all other insurance related businesses can join as an Industry member. This level is meant for company recognition and involvement. Industry members get the first option on advertising and booth spaces at our annual trade show.
